FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Unity Care President is Honored for Supporting Foster Youth in Santa Clara County

San Jose, Calif., (November 5, 2010) The San Jose Chapter of The Links, Inc. has chosen Unity Care's President and CEO, André Chapman, as the Honorary Chairperson for the annual Authors Luncheon on Saturday, November 6, 2010.

Each year, the prestigious award/recognition is bestowed upon an individual, group or organization which has shown tremendous dedication, involvement and service in the areas of supporting and sponsoring youth in the Santa Clara County Foster Care agencies.

This award also recognizes individual(s) who have contributed in the area of mentoring youth in diverse settings, which include tutoring, and/or collaboration with organizations that are committed to the youth development. Additionally, the San Jose chapter will also recognize and honor two local college bound foster youth as recipients of the Alice E. Foster Memorial Scholarship fund.

Mr. Chapman said, "I am sincerely honored that The San Jose Chapter of The Links, Inc. has selected me to be their Honorary Chairperson. Over the past seventeen years, I have worked tirelessly to advocate on behalf of our foster youth as well as to provide them with safe, secure and loving living environments in order to improve their physical, mental and emotional well-being. I am also extremely thankful to The Links, Inc. for establishing a scholarship fund to support local foster youth. These young adults have beaten the odds and the scholarships will give them the opportunity to achieve their dreams."

The 2010 Authors Luncheon is set for Saturday, November 6, 2010 at the Fairmont Hotel located at 170 South Market Street in San Jose from 10:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. Proceeds from the event will support The Links' community service activities in Santa Clara County.
